Kerner, Percy Both Draw Large Crowds In Antioch Visits

The two gubernatorial candidates, on tour of Lake County Tuesday, reached Antioch within minutes of each other.

Candidate Charles Percy, slated for a 2:30 p.m. appearance at Wesley Hall, arrived about 3:30 p.m. Governor Otto Kerner, first scheduled at 1:30 p.m., reached Antioch a few minutes later than his opponent.

If the size of the crowds listening to the two candidates is any gauge, votes will be fairly evenly split on election day. Both rallies were well-attended.

Senator Robert McClory spoke in support of the entire Republican ticket, before Mr. Percy was introduced. Elmer Eberman, chairman, introduced Nick Keller and Francis J. Berry, candidates at large, in the election of representatives. W. C. Petty introduced Charles Percy.

Percy predicted a great Republican victory on Nov. 3, but warned his listeners that each Republican must continue to work to spread his views. "We Republicans must guard against gathering together simply to agree with each other," he said at one point.

"I don't blame us—we're such nice people—but we need to get out and exchange views with non-Republicans if we want to win elections."

Percy said he found no conflict in his support of Barry Goldwater for president. He and the Republican presidential candidate share many of the same beliefs, he said, including belief in an improved foreign and domestic policy, less power for the Federal government, and other fundamental Republican beliefs. "If I'm elected, this is one governor who won't keep running to Washington to solve every problem," he declared.

Percy went on to attack the administration of Governor Otto Kerner, citing the defeat of voting reform laws during Kerner's administration. He charged that Mayor Daley "gave the word" that these laws were to be killed, and that Kerner was the tool of Mayor Daley.

Education, he declared, is the most important duty of the governor. Under Kerner, he charged, 80% of the financial support of education came from local government, only 20% from the state. Kerner, he charged, vetoed all education bills.

Kerner's claim to great strides in the Mental Health field are false, he declared, citing a Mental Health publication to prove that Illinois has slipped in ratings in six out of seven categories.

A block away, speaking at the same time as Percy, Governor Kerner greeted the people of Antioch as his neighbors, expressing regret that he was unable to spend more time here. He went on to assail Percy's stands on various matters and answer charges made by Percy in recent speeches.

The Governor repeated his "he'd rather switch than fight" phrase, in regard to Percy's early opposition to Goldwater's nomination, and his present support of the presidential candidate.

Percy, he said, has attacked his veto of the Education Bill. He vetoed the bill, he said, because he had no money to implement it. The bill to appropriate the necessary funds was passed by the House and then killed by a Republican-dominated Senate, forcing his veto of the Education bill.

Kerner derided Percy's claim of concern regarding economic growth of the state, declaring that Bell & Howell, of which Percy is chairman of the board, have moved their plants to Japan and England. "If you consider purchasing a Bell & Howell movie camera, look closely at it," Kerner said. "You will find it says Made in Japan, or Made in England. Will this increase job opportunity in Illinois?"

Kerner said Firestone Rubber had just announced the intention of building a new plant in Bloomington, Ill. "And that," he said, "was not brought about by a phone call."

Both candidates spoke to attentive audiences and received frequent applause during their speeches.

First Annual Ella Awards By GOP Club

About 700 of the Republican faithful gathered at George Diamond's Country Club last Thursday (Oct. 8) to pay homage to Sheriff Charles Larson.

A day of golf ended with dinner, awards and speeches by GOP notables. The Antioch Township Republican Club made its first annual "Ella (phant)" awards to State's Attorney Bruno W. Stanczak, candidate for reelection, and Pat Clavey, candidate for coroner. The awards were made for outstanding service in furthering Republican principles in the county.

Principal speaker of the evening was Congressman John Anderson, R., Rockford. He charged "the liberals have shed their liberal garments and donned the robes of moderates." Exposing the hypocrisy of the campaign should be one of the jobs of all Republicans, he declared.

Anderson was introduced by Congressman Robert McClory, R., Lake Bluff, Senator Everett M. Dirksen, who had been slated as the main speaker, was unable to attend.

The evening ended with dancing to the music of George Jaros and his band.

CHARLES PERCY spoke in Wesley Hall at the Antioch Methodist Church. Seated near him is County Superintendent of Schools W. C. Petty, who introduced the candidate for governor.

Similarity of Names Leads To Confusion

Mrs. Margaret Gaston, publisher of the Antioch News, says that the reports of her death are greatly exaggerated.

A similarity of names led to the confusion which precipitated a flurry of telephone calls and queries.

Mrs. Josephine Gaston, North Drive, Antioch, was fatally injured in a collision in Chicago last Friday involving her car, a bus and a truck. Antioch residents who heard radio broadcasts of Mrs. Gaston's death mistakenly believed Mrs. Margaret Gaston was the victim. A representative of the Chicago Tribune was among those who called to check the report.

The deceased is no relation to the family of Mrs. Margaret Gaston.

Toft Enters Fuel Oil Business

Ray Toft, owner of Ray's Shell Station at the corner of Lake St. and Broadway, has added the sale of fuel oil to his services.

The new business is called Ray Toft's Oil Service, and will be handled directly from his gas and service station. He initiated his new business on October 1.

Ray leased the bulk plant formerly operated by Bill Lahti. His decision to enter the business, he said, was made because of the big demand for a local fuel oil supplier.

State Aid Money To Schools Released

Ray Page, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has released the amount of money due to each of the school districts eligible for state aid during the 1963-64 school year.

The claims include an adjustment credit of $1,551, 098.26 granted schools on the basis of half-day attendance as a result of an opinion of the legal department of the Office of Public Instruction, $653,019.67 granted to schools as a result of tax objections based on inequities of assessments and $804,292.70 for summer schools.

Emmons school will receive $4,648.77; Antioch, Grade School, $56,595.80; Channel Lake, $6,007.07; Grass Lake School, $7,559.48; Antioch Community High School, $26,678.40.

Biggest, Best Homecoming Marks Golden Anniversary

Alumni, teachers and present-day students joined forces to make Antioch Community High School's Fiftieth Anniversary Homecoming an event to be long remembered.

Almost every class that has graduated from the high school in the fifty years since it was built was represented in the several activities that made up Homecoming week-end.

Friday night's bonfire was built high enough "to be seen in Fox Lake," home of Grant High, traditional Homecoming opponents in the Homecoming football game Saturday.

Saturday morning's parade was an especially large and elaborate one in honor of the Fiftieth Anniversary with at least forty units joining in. The Homecoming Queen and her court rode in the parade. Their names were announced early this year so that they might take a large part in the special events.

Queen Linda Ladewig was crowned at Saturday night's dance. Her court was Kathy Smith, Avon Dyer, Betty Frank, Cathy Benneke and Dale Collins.

Several Homecoming Queens from past classes joined the parade also.

Representatives of several past classes joined the parade in cars made the year they graduated, others were represented by floats. The classes of 1918, 1919, 1928, 1936, 1939, 1945, 1949 and 1951 were represented in the parade.

Bands, civic organizations, and business men contributed to make this the biggest and best Homecoming parade Antioch has seen.

The parade arrangements were handled mainly by the Student Council, with John W. Horan in charge of the civic section. Prizes for the class floats representing classes now in high school went to Seniors for first place, Juniors second, Freshmen third and Sophomores fourth.

Homecoming spirits were dampened Saturday afternoon as the Sequoia football team went down to defeat at the hands of Grant's Bulldogs. The Frosh-Soph Sequoias scored a victory in their share of the afternoon's game, though.

The program and Open House for returning alumni at the high school Sunday atternoon was the high point for graduates of past years. A huge crowd attended the program, and stayed to view the displays in the halls, and to renew acquaintance with former teachers and classmates.

Several had traveled long distances to return to Antioch for this special event. Hans Von Holwede, music teacher at the high school from 1929 to 1951, came from California. Mrs. Young (Miss Raymond), one of the teachers when the high school was first built, came from Ohio for the Golden Anniversary. Numerous alumni traveled long distances to be present.

Miss Alice Smith, who taught many generations of Antioch students, still lives in Antioch at the age of 96. She was greeted by many of her former pupils at Sunday's gathering.

The program featured musical number by the Stage Band, directed by Joseph Rush; by an Instrumental Combo, the Shays (Rick Erickson and Bill Groeninger); the Rhythm Kings (Hank Kubicki, class of 1960; Roy Miller, class of 1964; and Jim Jilly, Grant '64 graduate); piano solos by Cheryl Folbrink, class of '64, and a number on the organ by Hans Von Holwede, "I Left My Heart in San Francisco." Mr. Von Holwede told his audience to substitute Antioch for San Francisco and the selection would communicate his feelings at this reunion. Mr. Von Holwede wrote the music for the Fighting Sequoias song and the Antioch Loyalty song. Lyrics were by Cornelia Roberts.

Vocal numbers were performed by Lila Palinske, class of 1940; and the Faculty Four Minus One, composed of Stuart Good, class of 1945, now a teacher at the school; Ralph Brooks, vocal instructor, and Ken Smouse, English teacher.

Superintendent A. L. Dittman spoke early in the program. He said if he were to mention all who deserved mentioning at this event the afternoon would be consumed, but he gave special credit to Mrs. Edna Radke and Fred Stahmer, co-chairmen of the Golden Anniversary Alumni arrangements.

Ken Smouse M.C.'d the program, and wrote and narrated a skit, featuring Bob Oddsen as a teacher (class of '52), Mike McConahey as a student (class of '65) and Cheryl Folbrink as a Girl (class of '64).

Displays in the hall of pictures and other memorabilia of past days drew members of the alumni after the program. The displays will remain in some of the cases in hall throughout this anniversary year.

Many of the pictures, etc., were contributed by alumni. The displays were arranged by Edna Radke and Jackie Horton.

Among the articles on display in the hall trophy case on the first floor, near the entrance, are original ballots used in the referendum which established the High School District, loaned to the school by the office of W. C. Petty, and the list of voters; a minute book from the first years (one item mentioned is a board decision to erect a building to serve as a stable for horses); pictures of members of the first high school board, and other pictures.

A showcase in the lower corridor of the new building is devoted entirely to pictures of past athletic teams and events. Another showcase features music and drama. Other showcases feature miscellaneous pictures of students, teachers, proms, etc.

In a first-floor showcase is an Oliver Typewriter of fifty years ago, on loan to the school.

Classes met in classrooms and cafeteria for post-program gossip session to complete the anniversary celebration.

THE SENIOR CLASS took first place with this float.

Ghostly Ship Sails In Mystery-Comedy Play

On October 16-17, 23 and 24, patrons of the PM&L Theater on Main St. in Antioch will get a brief glimpse of Judgment Day, as the players present "Outward Bound."

"Outward Bound" is a comedy-drama, the story of nine passengers aboard a mysterious ship sailing into unknown waters.

Valerie McElroy portrays Mrs. Midget, a devoted, loving mother. PM&L patrons will remember Val from "Night Must Fall." She brings a wealth of talent and experience to the role.

Trumann Garrett has worked backstage as lighting or sound technician on all of PM&L's shows since joining the group a year ago. Trumann is now "out front" in the role of Mr. Thompson. His stage experience includes a role in the Zion Passion Play for several years.

Mrs. Clivedon-Banks, a snobbish gossip, is played by Garnet Oddsen. Garnet has appeared in several PM&L productions including "Night Must Fall" and "My Sister Eileen."

Another newcomer to Antioch, but not to the stage, is Harold N. Andrews. Harold is appearing in the role of the Rev. Duke. He is a teacher and assistant coach at ACHS.

Joseph Hunley is director of "Outward Bound."

George Grunow, Nanci Seyfarth and Esther Jacobs will present an art display in the lobby of the theater throughout the showing of "Outward Bound."

Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

L. G. School To Register Tots Early

Grass Lake School Superintendent William L. Stewart is asking that all children who will be entering first grade at Grass Lake School next year be registered next Wednesday or Thursday, Oct. 21 or 22, at the school.

The early registration is being made so that school authorities can plan for next year. The school is already overcrowded, Mr. Stewart says, and a large first grade next year will complicate the already crowded conditions. He asks that parents phone in to register their children if it is impossible for them to get to the school.

There are thirty pupils in the first grade this year, Mr. Stewart says. There are sixteen students in the eighth grade and classes entering the school each year become progressively larger.

Grass Lake School district voters will be asked to vote on a referendum Nov. 7 asking the approval of the issuance of bonds to finance the construction of an addition to the school. The addition would include four classrooms and a gymnasium. The proposal has previously been rejected by the voters.

The referendum and the need for additional space will be explained at a meeting of the Grass Lake P.T.A. on Monday, October 19, when Board President Robert Harj will be the speaker. Mr. Stewart urged that all parents and voters attend the meeting.

The 7:30 p.m. meeting will be preceded by a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. Those attending are asked to bring a dish to pass.

Antioch Township Assessment Roll for 1964

EDITORIAL

The Two Candidates For Governor Of Illinois

With a little more than two weeks to go until the November 3 election, the polls show Charles Percy favored over Governor Otto Kerner in the race for governor of the state of Illinois.

Further, surveys show that after four years in office, Governor Kerner is less well known than Charles Percy, who has conducted an intensive campaign for the last fifteen months.

The fact that Governor Kerner has made so little impression on the mass of voters is attributed by many to the fact that "he's a nice guy." Handsome and gentlemanly—he recently was declared "The Handsomest Governor"—his supporters have occasionally complained that he's too gentlemanly. He just "doesn't hit hard enough."

Perhaps another reason for the governor's lack of notoriety is the fact that his 4-year term has passed without a breath of scandal or charges of corruption, up to the last couple of weeks. The recently-aided charges that his campaign manager, Isaacs, has been profiting from shady bidding procedures on envelopes is the first hint of scandal in his regime.

The disclosures involving Isaacs certainly haven't helped the governor's candidacy. However, many voters are inclined to take such charges, coming late in political campaigns, with a grain of salt.

The charge of "bossism" by Mayor Daley and the Democratic machine has probably hurt the Governor more than any other single charge. His own lack of impact on the people has lent credence to the charge, in the minds of many voters. Percy has hammered hard on this point, and it's one that will hurt Kerner outside Chicago.

Governor Kerner favors open-occupancy legislation. Percy is against such legislation but approves fair-employment practices legislation. Percy also approves the national civil-rights bill, one of the points on which he is at odds with presidential candidate Barry Goldwater.

Governor Kerner claims great strides in Illinois' industrial development during his administration—the location of 21 new industries in the state in 1963 alone, due to his efforts. Illinois, he says, now leads the nation in exports, an increase of 31 per cent over 1960. The creation of 8,000 jobs and 4,000 indirect jobs have resulted from his efforts, he says.

Kerner established the Bureau of Tourism, designed to promote tourist trade in the state. He claims the Lincoln Heritage Trail has brought $1,000,000.00 in tourist trade to the state.

Incomes are up under his administration, the governor claims, and no new taxes have been levied.

Percy declares that the governor's figures proving his claims of economic growth are incorrect, and quotes figures of his own that apparently conflict with the governor's.

Other claims Kerner makes for his administration are:

—important steps in development of Illinois' water resources, through water resource planning and coordination of state agencies having water resource responsibility.

—to have taken full advantage of the Manpower Retraining Act. Soon, almost 13,000 persons will have completed the new skills program. Relief recipients have been retrained wherever possible, helping to reduce the Public Aid Rolls by $1 million a month.

—increases in unemployment compensation and workmen's compensation under his term of office. Improvements in the industrial safety code, antigarnishment laws, and Fair Employment Practices.

—Great improvements in the Mental Health field. Many mental health experts agree that the governor has kept his campaign promises in the mental health field, and that the Illinois mental health program has become a national model.

—Establishment of the Illinois Building Authority in 1961, at the Governor's recommendation, to build and provide hospital, housing, peni-

ALONG THE WAY with Annie Mae

Now that the cheers of Sequoia spanning fifty years have entered the pages of history, we must now get down to the brass tacks of an election. Straw pollsters will be approaching most of you within the next few days, (as will innumerable candidates), all trying to tally your political heartbeat! As a thinking citizen of these United States we are sure that you will listen, contemplate, and then without fail VOTE!

THE LATEST REPORT: In the glow of Friday's bonfire we spotted more Alumni holding hands than present day classmates. Mabel Lou (Hunt) Webber may have been the oldest Homecoming Queen present, but we're sure it couldn't have been more than three or four years ago. All of the former Queens just proved that a "thing of beauty is forever." Lila (Dalgard) Palinski captivates any audience with her pretty smile and talented guitar just as she did in the class of 1940. Hans Von Holwede's fabulous organ playing made us all sorry we didn't listen when he used to say, "Remember practice makes perfect!"

NOTES TO YOU: It's a boy for the Tom Havilands... The Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a Halloween window painting contest this year... received notice this week from La Jolla, Calif., of the forthcoming wedding of Craig Boyer Nelson, former Antioch resident and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Nelson of Nelson's R. E. ...

tentiary administrative, classroom, library recreational, and other facilities used by the State of Illinois.

—Improvements in the Illinois Youth Commission.

Charles Percy cites his record in business as evidence of his ability to conduct the affairs of the state with equal efficiency. At the age of 23, he was elected to the board of directors of Bell & Howell Co. At the age of 29, he became president of that company. He was elected chairman of the board and chief executive officer in 1961.

Percy's family has campaigned vigorously with him. His mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Percy, says, "Charles always succeeded at anything he tried to do."

Active in the Republican party for several years, Percy was elected president of the United Republican Fund of Illinois in 1955. Later he was vice chairman of the Republican National Finance Committee. In 1959, he was chairman of the Republican Committee on Program and Progress. In 1960 he was chairman of the Republican Party's 1960 Platform committee.

Early in his campaign, Percy declared his intention of eliminating the West Side bloc from the Republican party. In a daring move he "purged" several of what he termed "disloyal Republicans" from the list of nominees for the State Legislature. W. J. Murphy of Antioch was one of those removed.

Percy has declared his intention of:

—Seeing that more industry is attracted to Illinois.

—More defense contracts for Illinois.

—Opposing a raise in rates of existing taxes, or the introduction of new ones.

—Balancing the state budget.

—Local control of education and better quality education.

—In regard to the race problem, he advocates more effort to supply a better education to Negroes, economic growth to provide more jobs, and enforcement of housing codes to improve their housing.

—Local responsibility for urban renewal.

—In the welfare program, its aim should be rehabilitation.

—More qualified personnel in key positions in State government.

Percy describes himself as an "active conservative", then explains the term by saying an active conservative seeks guidance from the past but does not rigidly adhere to it.

The two candidates seem fairly close in their beliefs as to what's good for Illinois. Both are pledged to keep taxes down. Both want more jobs, better education, business growth. They differ in their methods of attaining these ends, Percy advocating a "do-it-ourselves" attitude, Kerner availing himself of all the Federal aid he can to further his programs.

The citizens of Illinois are fortunate—whether the Republican or Democrat candidate wins the governor's seat on November 3, we seem assured of an honest and capable governor.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Mr. Durkin's Courthouse Notebook (October 8) makes everything about the 1958 Courthouse referendum clear. The "hairsplitting" involved is simply this:

In 1958 the hold print on the ballot asked us voters if we wanted to approve 2½ million dollars in General obligation bonds for the construction of a new courthouse—Yes or No. We said "No" by a majority of 2 to 1. Now, underneath in print so fine as to be indiscernible ran the notation: "We supervisors know you want a courthouse; we're only asking how you want to pay for it. If you vote against general obligation bonds then we'll know you want to finance it with revenue bonds. That we can take care of with a Building Commission and it won't need to be an economical, serviceable unprepossessing 2½ million dollar deal either. We can turn out something spectacular and gradiose—the sky's the limit with revenue bonds, you know."

The fine print we voters ignored. This just proves how uninformed and ignorant the electorate is. In our haste to vote Against, we voted For, and instead of placing the blame where it belongs, on ourselves, we're just making things difficult for the kindly men of the Supervisory Board who are attempting to carry out our expensive "mandate" (as our August chairman of the Building Commission is wont to observe.)

Now that Mr. Durkin has explained the whole thing, aren't we foolish to keep on moaning about "loss of rights; loss of referendum; the denial of the courts to the people and the high-handed methods of our Board of Supervisors?"

And further, when the Board levies a 05 tax for the Building Commission (which it promised to abate) let's not scream about "broken promises, breach of faith and misuse of County funds." Mr. Durkin, I'm sure, will supply us with a sensible explanation of our Supervisors' profligate spending, which makes this added 5% tax necessary.

You missed the gist of my letter—the time element. The tragic events depicted there were exemplary of what could have happened during the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. as there were no doctors present in town during those hours on September 23rd.

This has been the status quo for Antioch for a long time.

I am a receptionist at an Antioch plant hiring over 250 people. On the above day an employee got a fragment of china in his eye. The pain was excruciating—the emergency doubled as he has sight in that one eye only. I phone every doctor in Antioch and Lake Villa and received the same reply, "Not in." We finally took him to a hospital where they could do nothing for him as the emergency room was not equipped to handle such a case. He waited from 12 until 2:00 p.m. in the office of an eye specialist before receiving treatment.

If through this accident he lost the sight of his only eye and became blind—it would have been quite tragic. Emergency—agreed?

On Thursday, Oct. 1st, a woman employee strained her back. She could not straighten up. With assistance she crept into the office where she remained standing in this crouched position for 15 minutes while I tried to reach every doctor in Antioch and Lake Villa. There was not one to be had. She was finally driven in a private car to a hospital in Waukegan. She is still under a doctor's care.

These accidents prompted me to write a plea to the doctors to stagger their hospital visits leaving at least one doctor on call in Antioch during the day.

Your own story would have a different ring had your child's accident happened at 10:06 a.m. instead of 6:10 p.m. I am not finding fault with the doctor's promptness in treating patients. My contention is—if they are not here—they can't help—now can they?

Dear Editor:

Your October 1, 1964, editorial, "Lengthy Ballots Cloud the Issues," was realistically stated. The Illinois voter in recent elections has shown, however, a significant preference for splitting his ballot. The election of Governor Kerner (D.) and the late Secretary of State Charles Carpentier (R.) in 1960 as well as the decision of the Cook County voters for Sheriff Richard Ogilvie (R.) and State's Attorney Daniel Ward (D.) were some recent instances of increased citizen awareness in state political affairs.

Equally important in the November 3rd voting is the choice of Representatives for the State House. While party die-hards on both sides of the fence would disagree, the party balance between the houses of the General Assembly has probably worked to the advantage of the State of Illinois. A notable exception is our legislature's non-compliance with the reapportionment law, which was given to the governor twice with the "best" wishes of our legislators.

Now we voters must select not more than 177 Representatives for the House. We shall not help solve the reapportionment problem fairly by marking straight party tickets—the faster and easier way out. Let us lead the way to compromise, not shown in the General Assembly by our representatives, by splitting our special House ballots on November 3.

Sincerely,
Howard R. Ballwanz

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

This November general election could go down in history as the "Year of the big switch."

As the campaign for the Nov. 3 election moves into its final stages there are almost daily reports of long-time Republican leaders who are announcing their switch to President Lyndon Johnson and newspapers which have always supported Republican candidates for President are coming out in support of the incumbent.

The switch-over virus has even infected Lake County with hundreds of staunch Republicans announcing openly and enthusiastically that they are supporting the candidacy of Judge Philip Yager, the Circuit Court appointee of Gov. Otto Kerner.

In less than two years on the Circuit Court bench the Lake Bluff Democrat has gained the respect and admiration of most of the lawyers in the district and the baristers are forming the nucleus of the Republicans-for-Yager movement.

This activity on behalf of Judge Yager, who must run for election to a full term because he was appointed to his post, is forcing the two GOP candidates for Circuit Judge, Mortimer Singer, of Highland Park, and Associate Judge LaVerne Dixon, to run against each other instead of as a team.

The three way fight for the two Circuit Court posts is providing what little excitement there has been in the local races this year and the judicial contests are also providing most of the confusion.

Judge Dixon no doubt has to spend a good part of his time explaining that he is not vacating a judgeship, but just changing titles while Singer is pointing out that if Judge Dixon is elected his Associate Judge post cannot be filled until the next general election in 1966.

The presence of Judge William M. Carroll, of Woodstock, on the Democratic ballot as a candidate for Appellate Judge and on the separate judicial ballot as a candidate for retention in the Circuit Judge post he won as a Republican has added to the bewilderment of the voters.

Since Judge Thomas J. Moran has withdrawn as a candidate as Circuit Judge to seek a full term as Appellate Judge a new vacancy could be created on the bench if Judge Carroll should upset the dope and defeat the Waukegan jurist.

This is admittedly a long shot, but then who thought the doctor's promptness in treating patients. My contention is—if they are not here—they can't help—now can they?

THE ANTIOCH NEWS 2 THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1964

which are written up as news stories. The stories are often accompanied by pictures. This is all free advertising for the campaigning politician, as are quotes of speeches he makes and expressions of his views on various subjects.

Incumbent candidates receive generous amounts of (free) advertising throughout their terms of office. In addition, editorials and comments of columnists bring the names of candidates before the public continually.

No other advertiser would expect nor receive this amount of free advertising. Exorbitant advertising fees to some papers, they must feel they're getting their money's worth.

I'd hate to think the candidate I was voting for was so incompetent that he'd allow himself to be "gouged" for an exorbitant fee.

Savings Bonds Sales In Lake County

Lake county residents purchased a total of $445,000 in Series E and H United States savings bonds in August, according to Philip L. Speldel, Lake Forest, Ill., general county chairman of the savings bond committee.

Total sales for both series in the state of Illinois were $27,076,301, according to Arnold J. Raun, state director of the Treasury Department's savings bond division. This is 2.2% below sales in August of 1963. In the first eight months of this year 07.8% of the state's annual quota of $355,500,000 has been reached, and Illinois purchases in August represented 7.6% of national sales, which were $364,000,000 for the month.

Gov. Kerner's chances for re-election were severely damaged by conflict of interest allegations against Ted Isaacs, but there is still a chance for a Democratic sweep in Illinois which would leave the State Senate as the last hope of the Republicans for a favorable reapportionment.

The News of June 3, 1915, carried the results of the election of members of the high school board. A. N. Tiffany was elected as president of the board; John Thain and D. B. Sabin were elected to three-year terms; Eugene Herman and A. E. Jack were elected to two-year terms, and Bernard Trieger and J. E. Sheehan were elected to one-year terms.

Unsuccessful candidates were Mildred Minto, George Bartlett, Susan Brown, F. B. Kennedy, and Catherine Runyard.

The first job of the newly selected school board was to select a site for the new school. The new high school board held their first meeting on Tuesday, June 15, with all seven members and County Superintendent of Schools T. A. Simpson present. Each of the various school sites that had been proposed was visited and inspected.

Sites proposed were: a five-acre lot belonging to E. B. Williams on the north end of the village school property; a lot on the west side of town; a five-acre tract belonging to B. F. Naber; on the south end of the village, several pieces of land owned respectively by R. D. Emmons, Charles Richards, S. LaPlant, Van Patten Bros., and Henry Grimm.

The News of June 27, 1915, told of the construction of seven schools in Lake County, to cost an aggregate of $60,500.00. The schools to be built and their estimated cost, were: Antioch High School, 5 or 6 rooms, at about $25,000.00; 6 or 7 room school at North Chicago, at $30,000.00; Bush one-room school northwest of Libertyville, $3,000.00; new one-room school at North Prairie just north of Zion, cost $3,500.00; one-room school in town of Warren, cost $3,000, and one-room school near Rosecrans, cost $2,000. On Tuesday, July 13, the school board held an election to decide three issues: Whether or not to build a high school (the alternative was to rent a building). 2. Whether bonds should be issued. 3. Select a site for the school building. The various sites under consideration were listed, and each voter was to mark his preference, majority vote to rule.

The voters approved the issuing of bonds in the amount of $20,000.00, 175 for, 29 against. Voters approved the construction of a school, 181 for, 28 against.

No majority vote on the site for the school was obtained, but the 97 votes cast for the Emmons property on the south end of the village made it by far the favorite.

At the August 1915 meeting of the High School board, it was decided to purchase the R. D. Emmons site, consisting of five acres, at $400 per acre, or $2,000.

Plans for buildings were submitted by eight architects. Plans drawn by Ashby, Ashby and Schultz, of Chicago, were accepted.

The plans called for a one-floor building. They included an auditorium 40' x 60' with a seating capacity of 400; a rest room, 10' x 12'; a study room 40' x 36', to accommodate 125 pupils; with six study rooms.

The Antioch News of January 27, 1916, tells of plans being made for dedication of the new High School early in March, as the people had been assured that the school would be completed by that time. The State Superintendent, says the News account, "tells us that we can be placed on the accredited list as soon as we have three teachers in the high school and reorganize our program."

The Antioch News of March 16, 1916, announces that the new High School will be dedicated on March 24, 1916, at 1:30 p.m. An account of the dedication ceremonies is carried in the Antioch News of March 30, 1916. The school had been in use, with an enrollment of 45, for over a week at the time of the ceremonies.

Eight hundred people crowded the auditorium. State Superintendent Francis G. Blair was the speaker. The Rev. Father Lynch gave the Invocation. After the program, those present toured the new High School Teachers at the new school were W. S. Adams, principal, Miss Raymond and Mr. Zehren.

The first basketball game was held in the new building that same night. Two hundred people watched Grayslake defeat the Antioch team by a score of 14-11.

Mail Early, Use Zip Code For Speedy Xmas Delivery

The Post Office Department's battle plan to handle the avalanche of Christmas mail has been issued.

Their plea to the public—"Shop Early, Mail Early, Use Zip Codes."

The P. O. expects to handle over seven billion individual pieces of mail just before Christmas. Each piece may be handled as many as ten times.

It is expected that 145,000 Christmas assistants will be hired to help move the mails. Extra services for the Christmas season include:

—Six-day parcel post service between Dec. 7 and 31.

—Seven-day parcel post service the two weeks before Christmas, if the need exists.

—Additional window service as local needs justify on the three Saturdays and Sundays before Christmas.

Other plans are: ABCD (Accelerated Business Collection-Delivery) will continue in operation even during the busiest days of the rush.

—Command posts will be set up in the 15 regional offices of the Department to handle many emergencies or unusual situations.

—Custodial maintenance employees will be given overtime pay for the first time. Previously, they received regular pay for overtime work.

—Mailing deadlines to assure delivery before Christmas are—all surface mail to Hawaii and Alaska; mail before Nov. 30.

—Surface parcels for overseas members of the Armed Forces and civilians who receive mail through APO's, Nov. 10.

—Gift parcels to distant U. S. points, Dec. 5.

—Air parcels to APO's, Dec. 10.

—Local gift parcels, Dec. 14.

—Local greeting cards, Dec. 15.

—Use of the ZIP code as an aid to speeding up deliveries will be pushed. Patrons may obtain ZIP codes for any addresses throughout the nation by calling their local post office.

—Mail vehicles normally slated for retirement but still operable are taken out of storage and put back in service around Christmas.

—Postmasters are asked to encourage homeowners to avoid covering their home addresses with wreaths and other decorations.

MISS DEB

... answers questions about Junior Miss etiquette, grooming and interests.

Q. At school the other day, some friends and I were talking about a girl who's sort of a bore, and we really cut her to the bone. Well, it turned out that she overheard every word we said, and now I feel terrible about hurting her feelings. She sits next to me in homeroom so I can't avoid her. Should I pretend nothing happened and be extra nice to her, or what?

A. You've learned the hard way that it's risky to let criticism get out of hand. To treat her "extra nice" while pretending nothing happened, shows you as being two-faced as well as catty. Why not be brave and offer a sincere, gracious apology. Then continue being as courteous to her as possible, and hope that she forgives and forgets.

Q. My best friend is so pretty I almost hate to be seen with her. In a side-by-side comparison, I just have to come off second best. Should I stop going around with her so much?

A. Friends aren't lipsticks—chosen to flatter the complexion. Keep your friendship but meanwhile take a good long look in the mirror. Of course, you don't look like your friend. You're you. You probably find yourself imitating your friend's way of dressing, her makeup and hair styles. Better start figuring out what things are best for you. Study magazines, experiment with different hairstyles and makeup shades. And what's wrong with second best anyway—so long as it's the "best you," not an "imitation her."

Q. My skin is so dry that I've started wearing face cream to bed at night. But what it does to the pillow cases rates zero with Mom. Is there any way for both me and the pillow case to stay beautiful?

A. A steamy shower can speed up the creaming process so that you don't need to give the bed linens a treatment. Just slick on a good, lanolin-rich cream (upward strokes only please!) then take a long, hot-as-possible shower. Launder everything but your face, because the cream is working on your lovely features. After the shower, spare the towels and use Kleenex tissues to whisk off the cream. (Firm upward strokes again). Finish with a splash of witch hazel or cold water.

BATHING THE NEWBORN

By Kenneth S. Shepard, M.D.
Dearborn Medical Center
Dearborn, Illinois

When a mother asks me how to bathe her newborn baby, here's what I tell her:

The bathroom temperature should be around 75 to 85 degrees F., the water temperature at which the immersed elbow feel no change.

Sponge-bath and water sponge-bathing may be started at once. Baby castle and some mild or medicated soaps are satisfactory. Dip-bathing may be started after the cord has fallen off and, in case of a boy, the circumcision has healed.

The cord base and the dry cord should be splashed with rubbing alcohol when the diaper is changed. Every effort should be made to keep the cord dry and exposed. I do not recommend pads and belly-binders.

Most often when the mother gets the baby home there is a petroleum jelly-impregnated gauze strip wrapped around the circumcision. This is to be removed and discarded. Apply a liberal amount of petroleum jelly to the circumcision but do not wrap gauze around the end. Frequently the petroleum jelly evaporates, leaving the gauze sticking to the healing tissues.

SPONGE BATH

Apply soap to the entire front of the body, except the face, and remove it by sponging. Turn the baby over and soap the entire back of the body. Remove the soap thoroughly, especially from the creases and the scalp. Wash the face with clear water. Wipe the skin dry and apply olive or mineral oil (to abnormally dry or scaly areas).

TUB BATH—May be given after the cord has dried and fallen off and the circumcision has healed. Apply soap to entire body, except the face. Put baby in a tub, basin or bathnet and remove the soap thoroughly. Hold baby firmly as his skin is slippery when soaped. Wipe him dry. Apply alcohol to navel after bath for first week of tub bathing.

Do not use applicators in ears, nose or mouth. Foreign material that cannot be reached by a twist of cotton or by a clean cloth on the finger should be left alone. Wash eyes with plain water and a soft cotton ball. Splash from outside of eye toward the inside or nasal corner.

After bathing, rinsing and patting dry, dust the body with corn starch. Many powders have a tendency to dry baby's skin and should be avoided during the first month. After the first month, powder may be used freely.

SPEAKING TO YOU

By John Burland

Director of Social Studies,
Rockford East High School

Suppose this should happen to you. You start from home some morning to go to work. You discover that the world has changed overnight, that the paved street in front of your home has become a stagnant muddy stream. The sidewalk is no longer a cement path but has become a gummy sticky mess that clings to your feet. People pass by that you seem to know but they have a wolfish look and an evil eye.

If this happens to you, go back home at once, call the doctor and get to bed. The world hasn't changed; you are sick. You need help.

I write this because of inquiries I have received about two widely circulating books: "A Choice Not An Echo" and "None Dare Call It Treason." Both of them purport to describe the country you and I live in; both of them picture the U. S. in the kind of nightmare that I just described above, both of them reek with error, innuendo, rumor, and distortion.

This is your country and mine. We spend half of our federal budget on defense; we are the strongest military power in the world. The defense department is headed by Robert McNamara whom Sen. Goldwater described only two years ago as, "One of the best secretaries of defense ever—on I.B.M. machine with legs." That was before he was running for the presidency; McNamara has not changed overnight.

This is a nation with the highest standard of living in the world. We eat more and better, we have better homes with more gadgets, we are better clothed and transported, we have greater savings than we or any other people in history have previously enjoyed.

Nor is that all by any means. We have a constantly improving school system that offers better opportunity to more children than ever before in history. We have the greatest and most accurate news gathering agencies in the world, our churches have burst at the seams as more and more people try to cram into them. None of this is new to you; it is part of your daily life and mine. It is as familiar as the houses on your street.

Now let's turn to the U. S. of the John Birch nightmare as described by the authors of the two books. It is so incredible and so fantastic that it is difficult to believe that any normal person could take either of them seriously.

First there is the charge that the top leaders of this country, for the last two decades, Democrat and Republican, have been pro-communist or so stupid that they have allowed Communists to control our policies. It is a sweeping indictment; it includes presidents and cabinet members, congressmen, Supreme Court judges, scientists and military men.

Who makes the charges? Do they come from men respected for their experience in public affairs, and their vast knowledge of the fields covered? They do not. The charges come from two people, unknown outside their little right-wing fraternity, without experience of the responsibility of public office and without a bowing acquaintance with the rules of evidence.

These are both hatchet jobs, not assembled to seek the truth, but to indict and sentence without trial the American government, our schools, our churches, the nation's press, TV, radio and even the Mental Health Society of being a part of a vast Communist plot. It not only is untrue; it is an adult equivalent of the Labor Day plots by young toughs and students at Hampton Beach, N.H. and Seaside, Ore. Both are completely negative; one is a senseless destruction of property, the other is a senseless attempt to sabotage confidence in our government.

What about the pages of authorities that both books cite? These are the accusations of nameless men without faces, and their testimony under these conditions would be thrown out of any court in the land. There are 50 citations from the Congressional Record, but the Congressional Record is an authority on nothing. Any congressman may insert into the record anything from any source, to reward his friends, to punish his enemies, to pay political debts. The 50 citations do not identify the witnesses. They are on the stand without a face, without a name, and with no cross examination.

The same thing is true of the nearly 100 citations from the House and Senate investigating committees. These committees have taken thousands of pages of testimony; some reliable, some interesting if true, some hysterical. Here again, the witness is not identified. This is a kangaroo court.

If you want to believe this trash, go ahead; but remember that it is not research. It is a hatchet job done with a paste pot and scissors. It is a typical John Birch production.

Newlyweds, U.S.A.
They're deeply in love,
And you can bet
Before very long,
They'll be ditto in debt.

A new look of size and motion is combined in the 1965 Fairlane, restyled from bumper to bumper for the first time since its introduction three years ago. Although new styling makes the midweight Fairlane look bigger, it remains about the size of the 1958 Ford on the outside and the 1959 Ford on the inside. Improved ride and economy; new low-profile tires for greater directional stability, better traction and longer life; significantly improved interior quietness; alternators and automatic chokes standard on all engines; and a complete line of options including low-cost air conditioning are features of all 1965 Fairlanes including the Fairlane Sports Coupe (above).

Eight Fairlane models — hardtops, station wagons and sedans — will be introduced in Ford dealer showrooms Friday, September 25.

Channel Lake News

By Louise Gutowski

The Channel Lake Community Club met Tuesday evening in the school library to put the finishing touches on their plans for the annual Spook Hop. The dance will be held Halloween night, Oct. 31, at the American Legion Home in Antioch. The music will be furnished by the Rhythm Kings and refreshments will be available. Proceeds will go to the continued support of the Boy and Girl Scouts in our community. The Club meets every second Tuesday of the month at 8 p.m. and needs the membership and support of all persons in the community.

The Channel Lake PTA will meet Wednesday, October 21, at 8 p.m. in the school gym. As this is membership month, dues for the coming year will be due. The main concern of this meeting will be the discussion to be held with members of the school board over the possibility of Channel Lake School consolidating with Antioch Grade School. The public is invited to participate in the discussion and everyone in the school district is urged to attend. Mr. Elmer Eberman, president of the school board, will act as moderator.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Anderson returned home last week-end after spending two weeks in Wild Rose, Wis., visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Prange and daughter Jill spent the weekend with Mrs. Prange's mother, Mrs. Marguerite Stratton, Mrs. Prange, who everyone knows as "Dani", was also home to take part in the Homecoming festivities and visit her sister Davi, who recently returned home from Victory Memorial Hospital. The Pranges live in Carbondale, where Mr. Prange attends school, working towards his Masters degree.

Also home for the Homecoming weekend was Roger Eberman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberman of Woodbine Ave. Roger is attending school in Bloomington.

Mrs. Marie Andrea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Kimmy of Lake Ave., was hospitalized in Chicago last weekend for emergency surgery. Marie suffered a perforated ulcer with complications setting in after surgery and was on the critical

Paperbacks For Students Displayed

For the third year in a row the teachers and P.T.A. members from public and parochial schools are invited to attend an Open House to be held Oct. 21-22, at Affiliated Book Distributors, Inc., 416 N. Wolf Rd., Wheeling, Ill.

The two previous ones have been extremely well attended and they anticipate another good turnout. For the first time several educational directors of major publishing houses will be present to meet the teachers and P.T.A. members. They also will point out many of the merits of pocket-sized books in regards to educational possibilities.

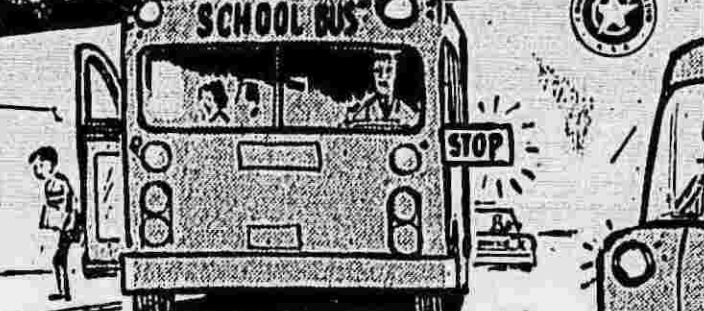

The growth of pocket editions for school use has been phenomenal. The number of schools with "stores" to stock pocket-sized books or using them for classes has increased to about 200 in this territory, which includes Southern Wisconsin and Northern Illinois.

Approximately 3000 books will be on display, covering educational levels from grade school to college.

Sequoits Lose Homecoming Game To Grant Bulldogs

Antioch's 50th anniversary homecoming celebration lost some of its earlier gaiety Saturday afternoon when the Sequoits suffered a 19 to 7 defeat at the hands of the visiting Grant Bulldogs.

The Bulldogs deserted the normal wide-open passing game; they can normally be expected to play and stick mainly with a ball control running type offense. The tactic netted them over 250 net yards rushing and three touchdowns.

The Sequoits held their own for the first quarter and it wasn't until midway in the second period that a bad break for the Sequoits set up Grant's first score.

A bad pass from center went over Bernie Smith's head into the end zone and the succeeding punt attempt was blocked and the alert Bulldogs fell on the Antioch two yard line.

James Miller took the ball in for the TD on the first play from scrimmage and Willis Klein booted the extra point to give the Bulldogs a 7-0 halftime edge.

Late in the third period Grant started a drive from their own 40 yard line. Steve Welter went 40 yards to the Antioch 11 before he was brought down. With some help from a penalty against the Sequoits Welter went in for the TD four plays later. A pass attempt for the PAT failed and Grant led 13-0 in the final stanza.

Grant's final touchdown was set up when they intercepted a Sequoit pass on their own 42 yard line. Five plays later, Durwood Layton galloped 32 yards around end for a TD. The Sequoit line broke through and blocked the extra point attempt and Grant held a 19-0 advantage.

The Sequoits got their only opportunity to cheer when Wally Henning took the kick-off and with a key block by Bob Flood broke free, eluding a host of Grant tacklers, and went 85 yards for the Sequoits' only score. Stan Revell booted the extra point and the final score remained 19-7.

Coach Roy Nelson lauded Tom Tantlinger, Jim Effinger, Mike Davis and Paul Williams for their outstanding defensive play. "The two Sheppard boys did a fine job defensively in the Sequoit secondary," Nelson added.

Nelson also praised Paul Lindblad's 50 yard quick kick in the first quarter and the quick reactions of Mike Sterbenz in downing an Antioch punt on the Grant one yard line.

The Sequoits will travel to Lake Zurich to take part in the Elva-Vernon homecoming celebration next Saturday. The Bears were mauled by Warren last Saturday 40 to 0 and will be looking to get back on the victory trail.

Now is the time to phone 395-4111 for free classified.

TOM WOJNOWIAK finishes in first place in the cross country meet held Saturday. The meet, run against Salem High School, was part of the homecoming celebration. Running between the two football games Saturday, the Sequoits won both ends of the meet, cross-country and football.

TOM MORGAN sweeps around end for good yardage against Grant Saturday only to have it called back because of a penalty. The Sequoits lost their homecoming game 19 to 7.

Soph Squad Beats Grant

The Antioch-Fresh-Soph football team came up with what Coach Andrew Hauptmann termed "a concentrated team effort" Saturday and eked out a 20 to 19 win over Grant at Antioch's homecoming.

Two extra point passes by Don Zeeman accounted for the margin needed for victory. Zeeman tossed to Tim Osmond for one and Fred Gras for the other.

"The team played heads up ball all the way," Hauptmann said. "They recovered three Grant fumbles and intercepted three Bulldog passes." Jim Litchfield scored all three Antioch touchdowns from his halfback position.

Litchfield scored on runs of 17 and 44 yards and took a pass from Don Zeeman good for 63 yards and the final Antioch score.

Hauptmann praised the work of linebacker Glen Otfedahl and end Steve Loblillo. "Steve Revell also did a fine job for us, setting up our first score by blocking a Grant punt on their 17 yard line. Zeeman was also outstanding on defense intercepting all three Grant passes."

"The Sophs will have their work cut out for them Saturday as they meet an undefeated Elva-Vernon eleven."

Warren, Scouts Score Gridiron Wins

Warren maintained pace with Grant Saturday by downing Elva-Vernon 40 to 0 at Warren. It was Warren's homecoming and the victory marked their third straight in conference play this season.

Warren took charge early in the game and led 13 to 0 going into the second period. They scored twice in the second period and capped it off with two touchdowns in the third period.

Lake Forest came back from a 6 to 0 deficit to win over Wauconda 26 to 6. The defending champs scored twice in the second period and then put the game on ice with two TD's in the third quarter.

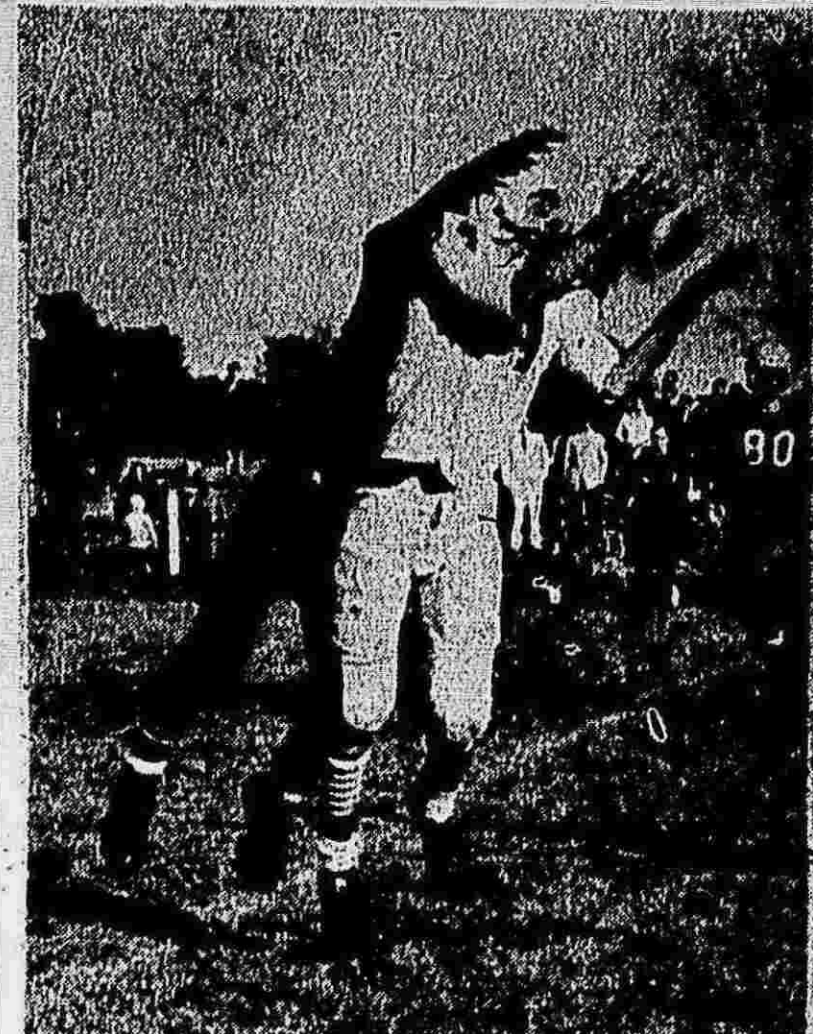

The Grayslake Rams fought off a last quarter rally by the Round Lake Panthers on the took the victory 27 to 25.

Point after touchdowns was the final margin of victory as the Panthers managed only one in four attempts while the Rams capitalized on three of four tries.

State C. O. Opposes Annual Sessions

CHICAGO — October 9 — The Illinois State Chamber of Commerce has said it does not favor annual sessions of the state legislature. The proposition will be submitted to voters in the form of a constitutional amendment at the November 3 election.

In a brochure mailed its members, the State Chamber warned that annual sessions would bring about a substantial increase in the cost of state government.

The Chamber also pointed out the danger that annual sessions, due to the added time required, might cause many capable small business and professional men now serving in the General Assembly to drop out and, at the same time discourage others from seeking legislative office.

Why Pay Twice?

You already pay taxes to support the Kerr-Mills Law, a generous federal-state medical program for those over 65 who need it. So why pay for another plan (Medicare) which isn't needed?

The Kerr-Mills Law (we call it the Health Opportunity Program for the Elderly) is a lot better than the proposed Medicare tax. You see, under Medicare you could end up paying for medical bills for the well-to-do. The proposed Medicare tax plan would pay for hospital care for many senior citizens who could well afford it. This makes it expensive. And every wage earner would have to pay for it through increased taxes. What's more important is that medical care is already available in Illinois for people over 65 who need it and cannot afford it. It's provided for by the Illinois Kerr-Mills Act of 1961. That's the truth. For information on the program, contact the Department of Public Aid in your local county or write to the Illinois State Medical Society, 360 N. Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

The Altar and Rosary Sodality of the Prince of Peace Church will hold a Day of Recollection at Our Lady of the Cedars Retreat House at the west end of Lake Villa. It will be held on Sunday, Nov. 22. Reservations must be made beforehand. The day will start at 10 a.m. and end at 3 p.m.

St. Mark Lutheran Church

The first Mr. and Mrs. Club meeting will begin next Sunday, Oct. 18, starting with a pot-luck supper at 5:30 p.m. All married couples who are interested in better fellowship at St. Mark are urged to attend.

A meeting for the parents of the Senior confirmation class will be held Thursday, Oct. 15, at 7:30 p.m.

The new clock in the all-purpose room of the church was given by the Maitland Harvey family.

A tape recorder was given to St. Mark Lutheran by the Earl Spiegler family in memory of Mr. Spiegler's parents.

Woman's Club

Mrs. Douglas (Mary Jeanne) Ploss and Mrs. Donald (Annabelle) Leavy were nominated for president of the Lindenhurst Women's Club at last Thursday's meeting. Mrs. Donald (Carol) Bogda for the office of vice president; Mrs. Ernest (Pearl) Kockler, secretary; and Mrs. Jack (Dorothy) Thompson, treasurer. Mrs. Thompson was treasurer in 1963 and has served the unexpired term of Mrs. Robert Karry, since July of this year.

Nominated to serve on the executive board were Mrs. Donald (Jeanette) Pfeifer; Mrs. Thor (Zenia) Neumann; Mrs. Raymond (Millie) Caldwell; and Mrs. Jenny Volpentesta. Two are to be elected. Election will be held at the November meeting. Only paid up members will be permitted to vote.

Mrs. Harold Sokup submitted her resignation as leader of Junior Girl Scout Troop 269, because of ill health. Her resignation becomes effective Nov. 3. Anyone interested in becoming a leader or co-leader for the troop, is asked to call Mrs. Sokup. If no leader is found, the troop will have to disband.

Due to the lack of sufficient recipes to fill a book, ladies of the village are invited to submit their favorite recipes, even if they are not members of the club. No cakes, cookies or jello molds are needed. Wanted are recipes for pies, frostings, salad dressings, meat and casserole dishes, vegetable, fish and egg dishes. Also, breads. They may be given to Mrs. Ploss or to any member of the club.

Hostesses were Marge Moffitt, Carol White, Helen Gilson and Anne Zandier.

Marge Moffitt and Mary Jeanne Ploss were the birthday ladies. Mrs. Ploss received the birthday gift.

Girl Scouts

Lynne Hay, former member, was a guest.

Junior Girl Scouts of Troops 269 of Lindenhurst Troop 212 of Venetian Village received skating certificates at the Lake Region Roller Ring in Antioch last week.

Little 11-month-old Robert Crutchfield has been in Victory Memorial Hospital since last Wednesday with bron-

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Jones of 2305 E. Glendale Court are the parents of a son, Steven Raymond, born October 8 at St. Theresa Hospital.

Parents' Night

About 150 parents attended Parents' Night at Prince of Peace School last Thursday night. The teachers and Sisters displayed equipment they have acquired over the years and showed how it is used in class. Some of the equipment has been donated by the Sisters, Father Lynch and private individuals. On display were charts, globes, dictionaries, tape recorders and other items used in modern methods of education.

Driver should allow a car pulling a trailer plenty of room since that driver is handicapped by greater stopping distance. Motorists also should remember that it takes greater clearance ahead to pass a car and trailer than it does to pass just a car alone.

ONLY FIVE YEARS AGO....

The 'Jeep' Wagoneer gives you a new sense of freedom. Now you can go where you want. Not where the road lets you. The reason? 'Jeep' 4-wheel drive.

Follow the dunes right down to the sea. Or take the snow covered road to the top of the hill. The 'Jeep' Wagoneer with 4-wheel drive has twice the traction of ordinary station wagons. It adds a wonderful confidence to all your driving.

And your 'Jeep' Wagoneer is definitely a family wagon. It has optional automatic transmission, power steering, power brakes, plus easy riding comfort, and the largest load space of any wagon in its field.

Booklet Honors Late Secretary

New York, N. Y. — Secretary of State William H. Chamberlain began distribution of a memorial booklet in honor of the late Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter by presenting the first copy to his widow, Mrs. Alice Carpenter, at Illinois Day ceremonies at the New York World's Fair.

The ceremonies included unveiling a plaque in the Illinois exhibit at the Fair acknowledging Mr. Carpenter's origination of the slogan, "Land of Lincoln," which is now the official Illinois slogan.

The 16-page booklet is a reprint of a special commemorative section of the 1963-1964 edition of the Illinois Blue Book, which Secretary Chamberlain has dedicated to the memory of Mr. Carpenter. Distribution of the Blue Book itself will be started next month.

In his dedication, Secretary Chamberlain said, "Mr. Carpenter's untimely death on April 3, 1964, removed from the Illinois scene an outstanding and dedicated public official and a colorful and warm personality. His accomplishments as Secretary of State during the eleven years he served in this office shall everlastingly stand as a tribute to his ability, his courage and his devotion to his State and his country. I am pleased to include in this Blue Book a special section reviewing those accomplishments."

Special tribute is paid to Mr. Carpenter's accomplishments in the field of traffic Question: "My teen-age son gets a pimple in his nose every few months. Then the nose gets red and swollen. What causes this?"

Answer: "Obviously, the best precaution is to keep the children away from areas that are known to be infested with snakes."

THE ANTIOCH NEWS 15
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1964

If your picnic area is near a highway or well traveled street, says the Chicago Motor Club, make certain your automobile is parked a safe distance from speeding traffic. When parking for roadside picnics always make certain your car is pulled completely off the highway. Autos parked on the shoulder of the road can be a mental hazard to oncoming drivers whose tendency is to swerve over the center line when passing a vehicle parked close to the highway.

Every woman needs the protection of a strong man who will steady the step-ladder while she paints the kitchen ceiling.

Tips on TableRite Rib Roast

1. Have your IGA butcher remove the short ribs and cut into individual servings. (Keep in refrigerator for one meal.)
2. Have butcher remove rib bones and have a boneless rolled roast of beef. Pre-heat oven to 325° F. Place meat fat side up in open roast pan. Insert meat thermometer; allow 25-30 minutes per lb., for rare; 35-40 minutes for medium; 40-45 minutes for well done. Thermometer should register 140° rare - 160° medium - 170-180° well.
3. Make a hearty soup from cooked rib bones or from raw bones off rolled roast. For a delightful change, serve with baked yams, buttered cabbage and for dessert, apple pie.
